

DisScribe Writers Group

Have you always wanted to be a writer?

Are you hoping to improve your writing and editing skills?

Do you need a buddy to keep you on track with your writing goals?

Our open writing group is dedicated to supporting and empowering the creative writing efforts of individuals with disabilities. Whether you're a seasoned writer or just starting out, DisScribe offers a welcoming space for sharing ideas, honing your craft, and connecting with fellow writers.

Join us for inspiring workshops, collaborative writing sessions, and valuable feedback that celebrates diverse voices and stories. Let's create together!

Virtually via Zoom
Every other Tuesday
10:00-11:30am

November 19
December 3
December 17

Contact Will:

william@dnwml.org
(734) 971-0277 x 560

